Elder Robt. B. Brown and John H. Merrill were in Port Huron Tuesday.

Mr. Reynolds, a brother of Mrs. H. E. Beard, is visiting them at present.

John Hallock and wife are in Detroit this week visiting among friends.

Mrs. Thos. Wharton and Mrs. D. Stevenson were in Port Huron Tuesday.

Jule Hennessy, of Richmond, visited his mother and friends in Yale this week.

R. G. McLaughlin and family, of Flint, visited at Geo. W. Bell's over Sunday.

Fred Mathews has been home this week visiting his parents and many friends.

Mrs. H. A. Granger, from Saginaw, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Menzies.

Mrs. E. R. Beecher left for Detroit Thursday morning to see Mrs. R. R. Noble who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Robt. H. Menerey and son Willie went to Saginaw on Monday for a visit among relatives and friends.

Mrs. P. C. Smith nee Cora Mills, of Gladwin, Mich., is the guest of Miss Mattie Jones and other friends here at present.

Nannie Tappan left on Thursday for her school in Casco, after spending a pleasant vacation at her home in Yale.

James Brown did not go to Chicago last Thursday as stated in the Expositor on account of being taken sick. He is now on the improve.

Patrick Regan who has been at work near Moore's Junction the past winter is home on a visit. He expects to return to that country soon.

H. C. Maloney, who has been editor and manager of the Otsego (Mich) Union since last fall is now in Yale with his family the guest of David Brown.

Thos. Brown returned to his home at Shabbona on Friday last and Mrs. Chas. Sterling to her home at Mt. Pleasant on Saturday after attending their mother's funeral.

Chas. Bradshaw is now employed in Chester Bricker's drug store Port Huron, having severed his connection with Grant Holden & Bro's drug store in Yale last week.

Medames John, Carl, Neil, Will, Tom, Grant, King, and Jesse Holden all took the train this morning for Port Huron on a little jaunt of their own. Their husbands are anxiously looking for their safe return this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tappan were in Port Huron on Monday. Mr. Tappan was suffering with a bad headache and some medicine was secured from a drug store to relieve him. Instead of relieving him, however, he was made very sick and it was impossible for them to reach home that night. It seems that it was something different and a larger dose than he had been accustomed to taking and acted like a poison upon him.
